

Crown Career Pathways is an Indigenous internship program that has been developed in response to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's Call to Action #92, which calls for increased employment opportunities for Indigenous peoples.

The program has been developed by Crown Investments Corporation and Saskatchewan's Crown corporations to provide a mechanism to bridge Indigenous graduates from eligible post-secondary institutes into permanent employment opportunities with the Crown sector, provincial government or the private sector in Saskatchewan.

Self-declared Indigenous graduates, within two years following graduation, are eligible for the program. The interns are required to have graduated from a post-secondary institute in Saskatchewan as recognized by the Government of Saskatchewan. The successful candidates will be hired for a one-year term at an annual salary of $50,000.00 with 15 vacation days and 10 sick days.
